DETAILED ACTION

1. This action is responsive to communications: amendment filed 10/5/05 to the application filed on 21/21/00.
2. Claims 4, 9, 14 are canceled.
3. Claims 1-3, 5-8, 10-13, 15-20 are pending in the case. Claims 1, 7, 13, 18 are independent claims.
4. The rejection of claim 14 under 35 USC 112, first paragraph, has been withdrawn in view of Applicants' explanation.
5. The rejections of claims 18-20 under 101 issue remain since Applicants' arguments are not persuasive.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

6. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

7. Claims 18-20 remain rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. Claims 18-20 are directed to a picture book template, which is merely non-functional descriptive material, and thus non-statutory.

Response to Arguments

8. Applicants' arguments filed on 10/5/05 have been considered but are not persuasive.

Art Unit: 2178

Applicants argue that claims 18-20 are statutory subject matter according to Flood v. Coe (Remarks, page 8).

Examiner respectfully disagrees.

Flood is directed to a physical printed page of a price ticket with perforated lines.

Independent claim 18 is directed to an electronic book template, not a physical book template with a requirement of perforated lines as in the case law. Thus, the claims are not related to Flood. The book template, thus, is not a printed matter on a substrate or paper as in Flood. The fact that Applicants considered the claimed book template as related to the physical price ticket with perforated lines in the In Flood v. Coe is not proper. The book template of the invention is merely an arrangement of data such as identifier lines to define pages in the book, an instruction region including assembly instructions, and the graphical depiction with identifier lines to aid in the assembly of the picture book without any functions related to the data. The book template, thus, is merely a non-functional descriptive material. The 101 rejection, thus, remains.

Applicants argue that Warmus does not disclose associating a set of assembly instructions with the digital picture book template by positioning a graphical depiction of an assembly of a picture book from the picture book cutout into a digital picture book template, wherein the identifier lines are additionally depicted in the graphical depiction corresponding to the identifier lines of the picture book cutout to aid an individual in the assembly of the picture book (Remarks, page 13).

Examiner agrees.

Claims 1, 7, and 13, which include said limitations and all of their dependent claims are allowed.

Allowable Subject Matter

9. Claims 1-3, 5-8, 10, 11-13, 15-17 are allowed.
10. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: the book templates with identifier lines to be folded and trimmed to assembly books of different book versions are disclosed in Warmus (figures 6a-b, 7a-b, 8a-b, col 7, line 1 to col 8, line 37). However, positioning a graphical depiction of an assembly of a picture book from a picture book cutout itself into the digital picture book template with identifier lines as depicted in the graphical depiction corresponding to the identifier lines of the book cutout to assembly the picture book are not disclosed or would not have been obvious in Warmus as well as in the prior art of record.

Conclusion

11. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
